

Emma Loignon-Giroux

Associate

514.868.5614 | eloignon-giroux@torys.com

Education

BCL/LLB, 2017, McGill University

BA, 2013, University of Ottawa

Bar Admission

Québec, 2018

Ontario, 2018

Practice

Emma’s practice focuses on litigation and dispute resolution in a variety of areas, including civil and commercial litigation, privacy, administrative and public law, class actions and international arbitration. Emma is fluently bilingual.

Emma has experience with the Québec Consumer Protection Act, particularly in the context of its application to financial institutions. She provides advice to clients in matters relating to compliance with consumer protection legislation, including regarding the impact of the modifications to Québec’s consumer protection regime arising from Bill 134, An Act mainly to modernize rules relating to consumer credit and to regulate debt settlement service contracts, high-cost credit contracts and loyalty programs.

Representative Work

- Canadian Civil Liberties Association, as an intervener, in the Supreme Court of Canada case Bela Kosoian v. Société de transport de Montréal, et al., concerning whether a pictogram creates a legal obligation to hold the handrail of an escalator in a subway station, as well as the civil liability standards applicable to police officers acting on a non-existent legal provision and the scope of the obligation to identify oneself to a police officer

Professional Involvement

Emma has served as law clerk at the Federal Court of Appeal.

During law school, Emma was Executive Editor (French Board) for the McGill Law Journal and a research assistant at the Centre for Intellectual Property Policy at McGill. She also interned for a Defence Counsel team at the Special Tribunal for Lebanon in The Hague.

Memberships and Affiliations

Emma is a member of the Young Bar of Montréal, The Advocates' Society, and AJEFO.

Insights

Tips for Lawyers Crossing the Border
October 24, 2017