

Se-Line Duong

Associate

514.868.5627 | sduong@torys.com

Education

JD, 2019, Osgoode Hall Law School
 LLB (Honours), 2018, Université de Montréal

Bar Admission

Québec, 2020

Practice

Se-Line’s practice focuses on civil and commercial litigation, including in the context of class actions.

Se-Line is fluent in French and English.

Recognition

François Chevette Award—First rank in Constitutional Law I & II (2016)

Lord Reading Award—First rank in Constitutional Law I & II (2016)

Representative Work

- Ticketmaster Canada, Live Nation Entertainment, Inc. and other related entities in proposed consumer protection class actions in Ontario and Québec concerning its refund policy for events postponed, rescheduled or canceled as a result of COVID-19
- an international environmental science company in multiple proposed product liability class actions in Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia and Québec (as well as multiple individual actions in provinces across Canada) concerning the active ingredient in a popular line of herbicides
- an international environmental science company in a proposed product liability class action in Ontario and a class action at trial in Québec concerning systemic insecticides

Professional Involvement

Prior to joining Torys, Se-Line completed a clerkship with the Superior Court of Québec. During law school, she was a legal research assistant in the fields of constitutional and public law. Se-Line also completed a legal internship abroad in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

Community

During law school, Se-Line volunteered at legal clinics and was involved with Pro Bono Students Canada. She participated in the international program Law Without Walls.

Memberships and Affiliations

Se-Line is a member of The Advocates' Society.